Notice regarding Certain Media Report

Nikkei reported, in yesterday's online edition and today's morning edition, that YOMEISHU SEIZO CO., LTD. (the "Company") is considering taking the Company private and divesting certain businesses, including the Yomeisyu business, and that Tsumura & Co. may be included among potential buyers. However, these reports are not based on any official announcement by the Company.

As disclosed in our "(Progress of Disclosed Matters) Notice regarding Certain Media Report" dated December 30, 2025, the Company has indeed been holding discussions with its largest shareholder, Yuzawa, regarding specific methods for taking the Company private, and, in connection therewith, is considering the divestiture of certain of its businesses. However, no decisions have been made at this time regarding the transaction terms of the privatization by Yuzawa or the potential purchasers of the businesses.

In the event that the Company determines any material fact that requires disclosure, it will make such information public promptly.
